How To Make The Best Of An Ugly Christmas Sweater With Gigi

Gigi the Chic Fairy has been invited to an ugly sweater party. Her human designer friend Adriana asked her to go along. Gigi plans to use her fairy magic to make the best out of this situation. Her favorite clothes to wear are a dress and leggings but she knows that sometimes it is important to step out of her comfort zone. She's put together eight tips for making the best out of attending an ugly sweater party even if you aren't sure about it.

Choose a Theme

If you thought that the theme of an ugly Christmas party, was just to wear an ugly Christmas sweater, you'd be partially correct. However, you can make your experience even more magical by selecting a theme of your own choosing such as gnomes. The Christmas sweatshirt above is fairly plain and Gigi would have to use some fairy dust to bedazzle it before the Christmas party, but she thinks it has some potential because gnomes are part of the magical world that she'd like to share with Adriana's friends, at least the ones who believe in fairies. Find this sweater here.

Select a Bright Design

This Christmas sweater that features Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer on it includes built-in LED bulbs that are going to enhance the already bright design. The sweater has a lovely red background, and the lights are going to add a festive and unique touch to your wardrobe for the ugly sweater party. Learn more about this bright choice here.
