Do You Believe in Magical Fairies?

Do you believe in magical fairies? This week Teelie's Fairy Garden is sharing some of the things that you can do to show your fairies how much you believe in them and remind them that you want them to be around you.

You Plant Beautiful Flowers For Your Fairies

If you want fairies to live with you, you can help entice them by planting beautiful flowers. Garden fairies will choose a person's garden and make it their lifelong home. Other fairies on missions might choose your garden for a brief rest as long as you give them everything they need and be sure that you continue to always believe in the magic of Fairy Land. We loved these mixed pansy seeds.

Find them and other amazing flower options here.

You Have a Fairy Door in Your Garden

Adding a fairy door to your fairy garden is an amazing and beautiful way to let fairies know that you'd like them to enter your garden. And it will also let them know that you're a believer since humans who are nonbelievers would never go to the effort of adding an adorable fairy door. There are many options to choose from. We selected a cute brown door with a cat decoration on it. Find our pick here.

You Create a Rest Area for Your Fairies

Creating a rest area for your fairies is a wonderful way to make sure that your fairies are comfortable and to entice them to your garden. There are many believers around the world, and it can be difficult for fairies to choose which garden to live in sometimes, so adding special accessories and décor can be a good way to let the fairies know how much you'd like them to live with you. We found a six-piece fairy set that includes miniature chairs, a table, and a cute tea set for two. Find this set here.

You Have a Fairy House

Having a fairy house is a major advantage when it comes to showing fairies how much you care about them and believe in them. All fairies want to have a place to rest their heads at night. Be creative when it comes to choosing your fairy house, having one that you like and that can be magical and whimsical for your fairy friends is a must. We liked this miniature purple fairy house that is made from metal and is shaped like a teapot. It is unique, bright colored, and fun looking. Learn more about it here.

You Give Your Fairies Activities to Do

If you provide your fairies with activities to do, then they will know that you went the extra mile to help them feel welcome in your garden. This is only something that true believers would do for a fairy. We love this miniature fairy swing which the Pink Fairy Queen is presently enjoying in the picture above. Magical Dragon Fairy Garden

Our first magical dragon fairy garden was posted by Tammy Corlette on Pinterest. We love how the container was tipped on its side to create the appearance of a cave. The dinosaur eggs and clump of grass outside the cave are also great features that go along with this fantastic dragon-themed fairy garden.

Prickly Dragon and Cactus Garden

MahsaStudio on Etsy has an adorable dragon in a fairy garden that includes a dragon with a pair of goggles because he doesn't like the wind in his eyes. He's in a cactus garden but don't worry his magic keeps him from getting poked with the thorns.

Fairy Gardening Tips

Swish and Stitch put together an amazing how-to article for creating simple and enchanted fairy gardens. We hope that you'll enjoy reading it and looking at the beautiful images. Featured above is one of their amazing fairy garden photos which includes a dragon outside of its amazing fortress of a home. The flowers are also beautiful.

Whimsical Fairy Garden Scene

TinkerTreasuresMinis on Etsy have an amazing fairy garden that features two dragons playing on an around a mushroom toadstool. Dragons like children and children at heart love to have fun and play. I especially love watching the baby dragons in Fairy Land. There is so much for them to do and learn as they gain skills for being amazing fairy pets and helpers.
